

School's Closed State Wide

Incredibly low temperatures force schools to close. As of now, including windchill, temps drop to as low as - 35 F. Do not go outside for extended periods of time. Bill Nye the weather guy has informed us that " in as little as ten minutes of exposure to the elements, the average human will devolope frost bite" Stay inside kids!

Michigan Declares State of Emergency

As the result of extreme weather, Michigan declares a state of emergency. This allows them to take necessary measures to combat extreme cold such as turning up the sun and turning on the seat warmers in the roads. This may explain the predicted high on Sunday of 47, which is crazy in comparison to the current weather. Cloudy with a Chance of MeatBalls explored the idea of government controlled weather. It is a good example of the pros and cons of this option
